

Please keep the do not call list. Other wise its like a nightmare it keeps comming back to haunt you. I think that i have the right to privacy. I still get calls and now i screen them before i pick up. If i were on the street and someone bothered me i could have him arrested. So why not the callers